Open House 2012 at Philander Smith College

Get ready for college life at Philander Smith. At our Open House, you and your parents will get to see the campus inside and out! Enjoy a fun-filled day where you can talk to current students, meet our President, faculty, and staff. You will also enjoy the festivities we have planned just for you this year. Come for a visit, stay for the education. See you there!!!!

Open House Activities

Campus tours, individual department information, live music, games, food, Greek and choir performances.
