Open House 2012 at Philander Smith College

Get ready for college life at Philander Smith. By attending our Open House, future students and parents get firsthand perspectives of our campus and programs.

Enjoy a fun-filled day with current students leading tours and answering questions; meet our President, faculty, and staff.

Come for a visit and stay for an education. See you there!

Open House Activities

Campus tours, individual department information, live music, games, food, Greek and choir performances, parents
